Hartford, WI

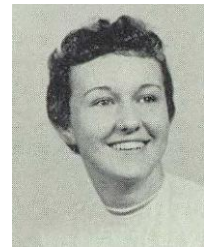

Lucinda “Cindy” Kay Bouray Cox, age 77, went home to the Lord and into the loving arms of her husband on Wednesday, August 26, 2020 at St. Luke’s Hospital. She was born April 2, 1943 in Rockford, IL where attended school. Cindy was united in marriage on April 27, 1963 to Jerry Cox, who preceded her in death in 2017.

In the early years with a young family she and Jerry enjoyed time with family and friends boating on the Mississippi River. After the boys had grown, they switched to an RV and enjoyed trips to NASCAR races, to Michigan for blueberries, and wintering in Florida watching migrating birds. She enjoyed the creativity of painting and music. With the slightest hint of a lyric she would break out into a song. Cindy loved her frequent phone conversations with her sister whom she adored. First and foremost, Cindy treasured her boys and the grandchildren that they blessed her with. She always loved to keep up on her grandchildren's lives. Through the years she delighted watching them in their sporting events, concerts, and theater productions.

Cindy is survived by sons, Jeffrey (Christine) and Jerod (Linda); five grandchildren, Callie (Jason Trost), Jake (Megan Schlefke), Kaylin Cox; Kimberly (Justin) Mueller, and Stephanie Lopas; sister, Nancy Dobnick; sister-in-law Judy (David) Lyford; nieces, Michelle (Thad) Tegtmeier, Jennifer (Andrew) Yergler and Denise Hunsche; nephew, Bradley Lyford; and other relatives and friends.
