

Diane Kathleen Sampson (Hazen) (Molzof) Schultz

January 11, 1943 (Rockford) September 30, 1996 (Madison, WI)

After a three-year remission, Diane Kathleen Sampson (Hazen) (Molzof) Schultz of Belleville, WI died in the UW Health University Hospital on Monday, September 30, 1996, of pneumonia related to a recurrence of cancer. She was born on January 11, 1943, to Lorraine A. Seaback and John R. Sampson.

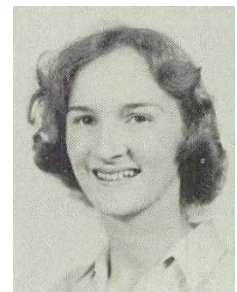

Diane's love of life lives on in her Mother, Lorraine; her now late (1994) Husband, Robert "Bob" Joseph Schultz; Brother, Doug (Debby) Sampson and their Children, Amanda and Luke; Brother, John (Nance) Sampson and their Children, Josh and Keri; Son, Tom Hazen and his Fiancée, Leanne Nagle; Daughter, Katia Hazen and her Fiancé, Nick Peterson; Daughter, Lorayne Ming Zhu Schultz; and the many members of her extended family including Glenn Austin and Bobby Kokott.

Throughout the course of her waltz with cancer, Diane brought joy and hope to other women with breast cancer as a member of Bosom Buddies.

Diane recently retired from Wisconsin Physicians Service after 22 years, and in May journeyed with Bob, to China, where they welcomed their adopted Daughter, Lori Ming to the family.

Her many accomplishments include traveling to three continents, designing her own geodesic dome home, and creating a second career as a photographer. Diane said she was most fulfilled by being a mom and she chose to reaffirm this by adopting a Daughter during her remission. Raising Tom and Katia mostly on her own, Diane inspired her Children to earn college degrees and pursue fulfilling careers in International Business and Bilingual Education.

Diane attended Rockford public schools and graduated from West High School with the Class of 1961.

References:

Wisconsin State Journal; Madison, Wisconsin; Wednesday, 02 Oct 1996; page 4B
www.Ancestry.com