July 9, 2005 (Rockford, IL)

After a courageous battle with cancer and with her family at her side, Sharon Gail Brewer McWilliams, 62, loving wife, mother, and grandmother, died peacefully Saturday, July 9, in her home. She was born in Naylor, MO, to Charles and Glenna (French) Brewer.

Sharon attended Rockford Public Schools and graduated with the West High School Class of 1961. She and Bob McWilliams married in Rockford on June 30, 1962.

For 20 years she and Bob were co-owners of Love Park's Cork and Bottle where she was known as the "bubble gum lady. Sharon enjoyed working as an election judge for Owen Township. She also loved crocheting, traveling, and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

Survivors include her Husband, Bob; Sons, Ron (Shari) McWilliams, Andy (Monica) McWilliams, Scott (Jacqui) McWilliams; the "other sons from her heart," Shawn (Andrea) Burns and Steve (Jeanne) Roggensack; and grandchildren, Tiffany, Shawn, Connor, Emma, and Ty. Sharon was predeceased by her Parents.

Her family thanks the kind and caring doctors and nurses at the Order of Saint Francis (OSF) Hospital and the OSF Hospice.

Visitation will be from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, July 13 in the Honquest Family Funeral Home, North Mulford Chapel, at 4205 N. Mulford Road, Rockford. The Memorial Mass will be at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, July 14, in St. Bridget Catholic Church, 600 Clifford Avenue, Loves Park, with Father Olson officiating. In lieu of flowers, Memorials may be made to the OSF Hospice Association.
