

Alan Lee Davis

April 7, 1943 (Milwaukee, WI)

March 26, 2005 (Tupelo, MS)

After a long illness Alan Lee "Al" Davis, 61, died Saturday, March 26, 2005, at Tupelo's North Mississippi Medical Center. A native of Milwaukee, WI, he was born April 7, 1943. Reared in Rockford, IL, he attended Rockford Public Schools and graduated with the Class of 1961 at West High School where he participated in Baseball and Intramural Sports. After graduation, he served in the Illinois National Guard and for many years was employed as the Materials Director at Rockford's Amerock Corporation.

He moved to Tupelo with MTD Products; certified by APICS, he worked in purchasing and inventory control. A frequent volunteer at charitable organizations, Al was a member of First Presbyterian Church and an avid tennis player,

Survivors include his Wife of 25 years, Margaret E. Davis; three Daughters, Angelique (Tom) Eddie of Rockton, IL, Sasha (Brad) Neuenschwander of Milwaukee, WI, and Melissa Fowlkes of Delavan, WI; a Brother, James Davis of Arizona; five Grandchildren, Zoe Christiansen and Thomas James Eddie, both of Rockton, Sophia Neuenschwander of Milwaukee, and Justin and Jarred Fowlkes, of Delavan.

Visitation will be from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 30th in the Jefferson Street Chapel of W.E. Pegues Funeral Home, 535 W Jefferson Street Tupelo; the funeral service will be in that Chapel at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, March 31st, the Reverend Donald R. McCain officiating. Pallbearers will be friends and co-workers from MTD, and burial will be in Tupelo Memorial Park. Memorials may be made to Health Care Foundation Heart Institute, Patients Assistance Fund, 830 S. Gloster Street, Tupelo, 38801 or Good Samaritan Health Services Free Clinic, 420 Magazine Street, Tupelo, 38804.

References:

Published Tupelo, MS Daily Journal, March 30, 2005

Obituaries, March 30, 2005 | News | djournal.com