

Fred Carl Sally, Jr.

June 19, 1905 (Caldonia, IL) February 15, 1992 (Rockford, IL)

Fred Carl Sally, 86, Rockford, died at home at 1:30 a.m. Saturday, February 15, 1992. The son of Fred and Agnes (Hacker) Sally, he was born June 19, 1905, in Caldonia, but lived most of his life in Rockford.

Fred attended Rockford public schools. United States Census records note he completed his first year of high school. The Commencement Program of West High School Class of 1961 documents that Russell earned his General Education Diploma (GED).

He married Irene L. (Stenander) In Rockford on June 29, 1927; she died December 3, 1988. Fred enlisted in the United States Army and served in World War II. Before and after his military service he worked as a mechanic and in various other jobs in the automotive industry; he likely he retired from his job as Inspector at J.I. Case.

Fred was predeceased by his Wife (December 3, 1988); Parents; Brother, Howard; and Sisters, Elsie and Edna. Survivors include Son, Richard C. (Geraldine) Sally (Rockford); Daughter, Lois Elizabeth Sally (New York); Grandsons, Jeffrey (Houston, TX) and Joel (Rockford); Brothers, Walter Sally (Colorado Springs, CO) and Irvin Sally (Phoenix, AZ); and many nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held at 11:00 a.m. February 19th in Rockford's Greenwood Cemetery officiated by Reverend Dr. Dale W. Hallberg, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church. Arrangements were entrusted to Rockford's Anderson-Long-Klontz Funeral Home on Court Street at Park Avenue. There was no visitation. In lieu of flowers, mourners are encouraged to make Memorials to a charity of choice.

Reference:

The obituary was retyped from a scanned newspaper article likely published in the Rockford Morning Star or the Rockford Register Republic; the childhood picture of Fred was cropped from a family photograph posted on Ancestry.com.